Royal Society of New Zealand Manawatu Branch

The Manawatū Branch of the Royal Society Te Apārangi is a regional constituent organisation of the Royal Society Te Apārangi. Our aim is to publicise science (in the broadest sense), technology and the humanities and provide interesting and topical talks for our members and the public of the Manawatū. All our talks are free and the public are invited to attend. The Branch is registered with the Charities Commission (CC44182).

ROYAL SOCIETY TE APĀRANGI MANAWATŪ BRANCH ACTIVITIES

- Monthly public meetings are held at the Palmerston North City Library. Some are combined with other societies.
- A monthly newsletter giving members details of meetings and selected local news items. Members may choose to receive this electronically or as printed copy.
- The Manawatū Lecture, our annual prestigious lecture describing an aspect of science relevant to the historical and future development of the Manawatū.
- Regular assistance with, and prizes for, the Manawatū Science & Technology Fair.
- The Council makes nominations for appropriate awards.
- Encouraging members to adhere to the Royal Society Te Apārangi Code of Ethics.
